Dr Margaret Kernan,
TOY Programme Coordinator

Your organisation has demonstrated commitment and motivation to quality intergenerational learning practice by participating in the TOY for Quality Programme and is now a member of the TOY Community of Practice.

The membership of the TOY Community of Practice gives access to:

- use of the TOY for Quality logo
- visibility on TOY communication media
- free access to TOY resources
- contact with many organisations around the world
- unlimited access to the TOY Course

The membership is valid for three years on condition that your organisation repeats the self-assessment process internally once a year; and submits annually an example of a successful intergenerational activity which you have facilitated.

Please refer to the TOY for Quality Guidelines for all Terms and Conditions.
